Scholarships

Business Academic Excellence Scholarship

Sponsored by QUT Business School

The Business Academic Excellence Scholarship gives students a head-start on university study in business, and acknowledges the hard work and outstanding results that commencing students have already achieved in high school. Through the provision of this scholarship, QUT Business School attracts the best business students to our programs, ensuring students have an engaging academic experience that produces graduates who are highly regarded by employers. This program assists QUT to continue to produce leaders in business domestically and internationally.

Dean's Honours Scholarship

Sponsored by QUT Business School

The prestigious QUT Business School Dean's Honours Scholarship is awarded to high-achieving school leavers as a pathway to higher degree research. The program offers scholars financial support to complete both the Bachelor of Business degree and honours, and access to research and analytical skills that employer's value.

The Mark Christensen Memorial Scholarship

Sponsored by The Queensland Treasury Corporation

The Mark Christensen Memorial Scholarship honours the life, character and values of a highly-gifted teacher and generous mentor. Mark Christensen worked in finance and related industries for nearly 30 years and was an award-winning teacher at QUT, lecturing in Accounting and Finance. In tribute to the sterling personal qualities for which Mark is fondly remembered, this scholarship is awarded to a promising student in the Master of Business (Applied Finance) program who embodies both merit and character.

Myles McGregor-Lowndes Scholarship

The Myles McGregor-Lowndes Fund

The Myles McGregor-Lowndes Scholarship was established in 2017 to mark the transition to retirement of one of QUT's longest-standing and highly-respected teachers and researchers. The scholarship continues Myles' tradition of investing in students by fostering tomorrow's community leaders. Myles was responsible for the establishment of the Australian Centre for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies (ACPNS) in 2001. This move profiled QUT's leadership in the field of teaching and research in the nonprofit and philanthropic sectors in Australia.

Scholarships

Corporate Partners in Excellence Scholarship (CPIE)

The CPIE scholarship is a unique industry-linked program designed to attract academically talented students with demonstrated leadership potential to QUT Business School and offer them challenging professional internships with our corporate partners. The CPIE program represents QUT Business School's commitment to developing outstanding business graduates for the benefit of, and in partnership with, Queensland. Our 2020 CPIE supporters are:

Getting Started Scholarship

Sponsored by QUT Business School

The Getting Started scholarship provides exceptional Indigenous school leavers with support to undertake a business degree and provides a financial contribution to assist with the transition to university.

Laurie Cowled Indigenous Business Scholarship

Sponsored by The Laurie Cowled Foundation

Laurie Cowled founded the Cowled Foundation following her husband's death in 2005 in an effort to foster business leadership and scholarship amongst young Australian women. Laurie is pleased to work with QUT Business School to fund the Laurie Cowled Indigenous Business Scholarship to support one female Indigenous student to commence or continue their studies in order to pursue a career in Business.

Su Mon Wong Scholarship for Excellence in Marketing

Sponsored by The Su Mon Wong Endowment Fund

The Su Mon Wong Scholarship for Excellence in Marketing is named in honour of long-term QUT marketing lecturer, Su Mon Wong, who served QUT Business School, its students and Alumni for 34 years before retiring at the end of 2009. The annual scholarship is awarded to an outstanding marketing student in their final year of study who demonstrates leadership, innovation and a commitment to excellence in marketing and business practice.

Scholarships

National Australia Bank Financial Planners Scholarship

Sponsored by National Australia Bank (NAB)

The National Australia Bank Financial Planners Scholarship rewards promising and passionate students who aspire to a career in Financial Planning. It aims to raise the profile of financial planning as a profession to encourage new entrants into the industry.
